SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of Three (3) Years.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not own, possess or have under his control any firearm, dangerous weapon or other destructive device.

The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 14135a(d)(1) and 10 U.S.C. 1656(d), which requires mandatory DNA testing for federal offenders convicted of felony offenses.

The defendant shall submit to urine screenings, and, drug treatment, if deemed necessary, under the guidance and supervision of the United States Probation Officer. The defendant shall not be responsible for the costs of said screenings and/or treatment.

The defendant shall, at the request of the U.S. Probation Officer, submit to a search of his person, property (real, personal, or rental), residence, place of business of employment, office and/or vehicle(s), at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
